

Beloved Singer-Songwriter Bob Bennett in Concert at St. Thomas Episcopal Church
College Station, TX – September 10, 2025 at 6:30 p.m.

St. Thomas Episcopal Church is pleased to welcome Singer-Songwriter-Storyteller Bob Bennett in Concert on Wednesday, September 10, at 6:30 p.m. All are invited to this community-wide event featuring one of Christian music's most respected voices.

With a career spanning over four decades, Bob Bennett is known for his poetic lyrics, masterful guitar work, and deeply personal storytelling. His honest and faith-filled songs have inspired generations, often drawing comparisons to artists like David Wilcox, Bruce Cockburn, and Shawn Colvin.

"Bob Bennett's music is about being human... the eye is keen, the heart is open." — Bob Franke

"A poet of a songwriter... a one-of-a-kind wonder." — Michael Kelly Blanchard

"He is a national treasure." — Pierce Pettis

"When I hear Bob Bennett's music, I'm reminded that there are still songwriters and artists among us who wear honest hearts on their sleeves."-- Phil Keaggy

Bennett's music defies easy categorization. Though rooted in his Christian faith, his songs explore the full range of human experience with uncommon vulnerability, grace, and wit. Whether performing in large arenas or intimate churches, his performances feel like personal conversations — grounded, authentic, and moving.

The concert will begin at 6:30 p.m. and include a brief intermission at 7:30 p.m. for those who may need to pick up children. For those able to stay, Bob will continue playing for an additional 30 to 45 minutes.

Admission is free and open to the public. Donations are welcome.

Event Details:

St. Thomas Episcopal Church – 906 George Bush Dr, College Station, TX

Wednesday, September 10, 2025

6:30 p.m.

Free and open to the public (donations welcomed)

Learn more about Bob Bennett at www.bobbennett.com